

Want to compare/contrast 100% Cotton, Hemp & Cotton to All-In-Ones/Pocket Diapers?

The Diaper Nanny is the FIRST and ONLY diaper service in Greater Philadelphia to allow YOU to choose and offer FULL TRANSPARENCY to make your choice.

100% Unbleached Indian Cotton Prefolds

- Pure, Natural, cotton as nature intended.
- Wholesome: No Chemicals or Toxins.
- Trusted and Ever True – just cotton!
- Rave of the diapering community and are sold to diaper services and retailers nationwide and in at least nine additional countries.
- The manufacturer (OsoCozy) believes in family: “We cut fabric in a central location and the sewing takes place in the homes of moms and grand moms whom choose to stay at home to spend more time with their families.”
- Thicker diapers are generally preferred for home diapering due to the added absorbency. Most diaper services use 4x6x4 diapers to economize on costs and drying time and because they supply enough diapers for frequent changes. Most home users prefer 4x8x4 diapers. If you feel your 4x8x4 diapers are too bulky try 4x6x4 diapers.
No Bleach used in the construction that decreases strength and resiliency (Recommendation from the OsoCozy website; www.clothdiaper.com)
- 4-8-4 layered strength for the most absorbency and durability
- 4-6-4 layered cotton available for less bulk – your choice!
- Quilts up to a luxurious feel and touch.
- Use with Diaper covers
- 55% Hemp/45% Cotton Prefolds

Mix of hemp plant known for its flexibility and absorbency, resiliency to pests and environmental hardness.

- 2-3-2 layers of soft 55% hemp and 45% cotton fleece
- Manufacturers contend “nothing absorbs better than hemp fleece – good for the maximum soaker or used in pocket diapers”. (www.babykicks.com)
- Hemp is known for breathability and insulative qualities.
- Use with diaper covers
